Criteria and Eligibility

Drama Scholars should be high-performing actors or theatre technicians. They should have performed in a wide variety of school or out-of-school shows, on stage or in front of the camera. Performance and Dance candidates will also be considered.

Barnard Castle School aims to provide opportunities for those who satisfy the following criteria:

Flounders Scholarship

- Candidates will take part in a group workshop, followed by an individual audition. They will be asked to perform a pre-rehearsed piece, no longer than five minutes long. Successful applicants will be expected to study GCSE Drama, and contribute to all areas of Drama during their time at Barney, including School plays and musicals, either on stage or in Tech Crew.

Flounders Scholarship

- Candidates will take part in a group workshop, followed by an individual audition. They will be asked to perform two pre-rehearsed pieces no longer than 5 minutes each. They may choose any contemporary piece they wish. Full details will be sent out prior to the event. It is not essential to have taken Drama for GCSE but this is desirable. Successful applicants will be expected to study A Level Drama, and contribute to all areas of Drama during the Sixth Form, including School plays and musicals either on stage, behind the scenes (directing and Tech Crew) or front of house. Balliol Drama Scholars may also embark on a Directorial Apprenticeship led by the Director of Drama.

Dates of assessments can be found on the school website

Applicant & Parent / Guardian Declaration

Please note:

If the application is successful, pupils are expected to fulfil all commitments within the school. This award will be reviewed on an annual basis by the Head of Scholarships and can be revoked should a pupil not consistently display the required commitment and attributes expected of a scholar, which are outlined in the Scholar's Contract.

I certify that the information contained in this application is correct. If the information changes in any way, I will inform Barnard Castle School at the earliest possible convenience. I agree to Barnard Castle School using my details for promotional purposes if my application is successful.
